Posted by Prof. Goose on May 20, 2007 - 1:22am

Topic: Alternative energy

Gal Luft, Executive Director of the Institute for the Analysis of Global Security will talk about a potential oil revenue sharing deal being debated in the Iraqi Parliament. He will also discuss how the legislation treats the distribution of revenue to Shiites, Sunnis, Kurds, and foreign oil companies.

Tomorrow morning at 9:30 EDT Sunday on C-Span. Give him a call (it's Washington Journal, so I would encourage you to)--and forget not to mention The Oil Drum! :) (thanks Kevin C. for the tip.)
